

A Guide To GreenPath

Your path to a healthy financial future begins here.

Do you have all the tools, resources and support you need to live a financially healthy life?

Are you experiencing a life event or change?

GreenPath is here to help prepare you for life's ups and downs, and to help you gain access to the tools and resources to manage your finances to support your goals.

GreenPath's mission is to empower people to lead financially healthy lives.

New family member?

We can take you through a Spending Plan Review and help you develop a plan.

Interested in learning about options for dealing with debt?

We offer Debt Counseling to help ease your financial stress, address your financial concerns, and develop a plan for living a financially healthy life.

Want to better understand your credit score?

We can walk you through a Credit Report Review and offer strategies to help you meet your credit goals.

Questions about budgeting for homeownership?

We can help navigate your current situation or prepare you for a future situation with our HUD Approved Housing Counseling Services.***

Do you have student loans?

We will help you explore your options with our Student Loan Counseling services.

All conversations with GreenPath employees are confidential.

*GreenPath is an approved U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development housing counseling intermediary.

Financial Wellness is for Everyone and We're Here For You

Educational Resources

GreenPath offers innovative ways to learn more about personal finances including videos, blog articles, webinars and much more!

877-202-7451
www.greenpathref.com